Um: Peace be with you.

Ab: Where is Dad?

Um: He is here.

Ab: Where?

Um: He is here.

Ab: He is there?

Um: Yes.

Ab: Put him on.

Um: Ok. Go tell Papa it is uncle Abdel Rahman.

Mo: Peace be with you.

Ab: Peace be with you, Sheik.

Mo: Welcome.

Ab: Are you listening to Radio London?

Mo: Where is it?

Ab: You didn't listen to it?

Mo: No. Where?

Ab: At 13,6... I set it for you under number 9, man.

Mo: Ok. Here is number 9.

Ab: A beautiful operation just took place.

Mo: Number 9, you told me?

Ab: Yes.

Mo: [Radio static]. Is it 13,660?

Ab: Yes.

Mo: I don't hear it.

Ab: Try to listen to it.

Mo: There is static.

Ab: You can't listen to it? [Radio broadcast plays] "...the suicide operation which was carried out by one of Hamas Movement's activists in Dizengoph street in Tel Aviv...". Do you hear? Hello.

Mo: Yes, yes. But, why can't I get it?

Ab: What is important is that they carried out an operation.

Mo: Yes.

Ab: In Beit Leed, the village of Beit Leed.

Mo: Where is that?

Ab: Near Tel..., near Tel Aviv.

Mo: Yes.

Ab: There is 18 soldiers dead and 60 injured.

Mo: Oh, God!

Ab: Ah. Two explosions, done consecutively. Anyway, if you have a TV, turn it off, turn the radio on and you'll get it. Here, do you hear how I receive it?

Mo: I'm not getting it. Praised be Almighty God.

Ab: That means you need an antenna. You have a problem. They just broadcasted the news and they're commenting about previous operations.

Mo: Ok. May it be..., may it be good, God's willing.

Ab: Ok. Listen to the CNN and see. They might broadcast something. I don't know. I heard it on Radio London just now.

Mo: Ok. It will be good, God's willing. Peace be with you.

Ab: Ok. Peace.
